ABOUT CANDACE:

Candace Joy is an ambitious entrepreneur dedicated to planning memorable meetings, extraordinary events and providing innovative business solutions. As an organizational expert, Candace artfully masters professional customer service and authentic relationship building. This has positioned her as an invaluable resource to brands and organizations. Candace has a wealth of expertise in working closely with public figures and C-Suite executives to execute fast-paced, high-demand conferences and conventions.

After more than 15 years in the industry, Candace transitioned to a full-time entrepreneur. A modern millennial, Candace is also an advocate for empowering young professionals and aspiring entrepreneurs to achieve their dreams and live their lives to their fullest potential.

In 2017, Candace became an author of Planners Unplugged: Secrets of the Worlds Greatest Event Planners.

Candace currently resides in Accokeek, Maryland.
